

Inhumane- A Modernity

Ruchi Kumari

LL.B IInd Year, Bihar Institute of Law, Patliputra University, Patna

Abstract

About humans who is becoming inhumane day by day.

“Be the reason someone smiles. Be the reason someone feels loved and believes in the goodness in people.”¹

We all know ‘Human’ is social animal, wise man, a knowledgeable man, to classify and distinguish the modern living being from other species within the homo genus but this modern living homo sapiens becoming more inhumane gradually. Today’s humans are not literally human they are literally becoming machines day by day.

Sahini Dictionary says ‘Human’ a man or mankind having or exhibiting the form, nature, or qualities typical of.

Oxford Advanced Learner's Dictionary, "Human" as an adjective means relating to or characteristic of people as opposed to animals, machines, or gods.

In Merriam-Webster, "human" as a noun refers to a member of the species Homo sapiens, a person. As an adjective, "human" describes something relating to or characteristic of humans. It can also mean having the qualities, faults, and feelings that people have, as opposed to animals or machines.

Above all means about man, a living being exhibit typical characteristics than other species and machines in the whole biodiversity of the earth. This human invented the complex and delicate natural expression of feelings and emotions persistent with numerous thoughts and ideas, known as ‘Humane’ the race of human known as ‘Humanity’.

Apart from the wordy world, this era defining the human in very different way. Today’s humans are living being who breathe and belief upon non-living beings. We are sufferer of advanced technologies and inventions. Rapid increment in belief upon unnatural complex means and practices of easy making life resulting vigorous personality or traits of ours in this delicate and beautiful ecology. Severe diseases, hazards, severe natural calamities, terror, nuisance, violence, crime, brutal attitude (aggression), unwanted behavior (selfishness and arrogance), unnatural expressions (lack of loving and humble nature), these are the real view of modern human.

We are impersonating ourselves by taking more involvement and getting attachment to this artificial world. No doubt, this advanced view we all need the most for present and future growth and development but the corner of our heart should be more living as pure gold always which contains love, affection, compassion, humbleness, kindness and truth facing character. These all are delicate pearls make us rare gems ‘Human Being’.

Hence, Human are those who have humanity and behave humanly.

¹ Roy T. Bennett, The Light in the Heart

“The greatness of humanity is not being human, but in being humane.”²

² Mahatma Gandhi